[Adapted and modified by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council. Adapted and modified by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950].

An Act to facilitate the adjustment of unsettled claims to exemption from the payment of Government land-revenue, and to regulate the succession to, and transfer of, lands wholly or partially exempt from the payment of such revenue in those parts of the Bombay Presidency which are subject to the operation of Act XI of 1852 of the Legislative Council of India.

WHEREAS, it has been deemed expedient to provide for the final adjustment, summarily, of unsettled claims to exemption from the payment of land-revenue, and to fix the conditions which shall secure, in certain cases, the recognition of titles to such exemption with respect to succession and transfer in those districts of the Bombay Presidency to which the operation of Act XI of 1852 of the Legislative Council of India extends; It is hereby enacted as follows :--

1. Clause 1st .- When the holders of lands in any of the said districts (except as is excepted in clause second of this section) held either wholly or partially exempt from the payment of Government land-revenue, whose title to exemption has not yet been formally adjudicated, shall have consented to submit to the terms and conditions hereinafter described. in preference to being obliged to prove their title to the exemption enjoyed by them, it shall be lawful for the ²[State] Government] to finally authorize and guarantee the continuance, in perpetuity, of the said land to the said holders, their heirs and assigns, upon the said terms and subject to the said conditions.

Preamble.

Power to authorize and guarantee continuance in perpetuity of land to revenue free holders on terms and conditions agreed to.

Clause 2nd :- The excepted cases to which the authority of adjustment and guarantee vested in the ²[State] Government] by this provision, shall not extend, are the cases of lands held as follows :-

Exceptions.

- 1st*, lands held under treaty;
- 2nd*, lands granted or held as jagirs or saranjams, or on similar political tenure;
- 3rd*, lands held for service;
- 4th*, lands already formally adjudicated to be not continuable hereditary.

1. For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Bombay Government Gazette, 1862, Supplement, p. 360 for report of the Select Committee, See ibid., p. 719 and for Proceedings in Council, See ibid., p. 444 ibid., 1863 pp. 66, 182 and 201.

As to the application of this Act, see the Bombay Land-revenue Code, 1870 (Bom. 5 of 1879), s. 127. The short title was given by the Bombay Short Titles Act, 1921(Bom. 2 of 1921).

2. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Governor in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

3. This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

Such lands (subject to enactments in section 3) to be heritable and transferable property of holders and continued in perpetuity, subject to payment to ¹[²State] Government] of Nazrana and quit-rent.

(2) When the ¹[²State] Government] shall have finally authorized and guaranteed the continuance, in perpetuity, to the holders, their heirs and assigns, of lands wholly or partially exempt from the ordinary payment of annual land-revenue, whose title to exemption has not already been formally adjudicated and who have dispensed with an inquiry into such title, the said lands shall (subject to the enactments contained in section 3³* * *) be the heritable and transferable property of the said holders, their heirs and assigns, without restriction, as to adoption, collateral succession or transfer ; and such lands shall thenceforth be continued, in perpetuity, subject to an annual, ⁴[payment to the ²[State] Government]. Such payment shall consist of –

1st, a fixed annual payment as nazrana, in commutation of all claims ⁵[of the ⁶[government]] in respct of succession and transfer, and shall be calculated at the rate of one anna for each rupee of assessment;

2nd, of a quit-rent equal to one-fourth of the assessment.

The said assessment shall be ascertainable under the following rules :–

Rules for ascertaining amount of assessment.

Rule 1.–The assessment of lands other than those specified in Rule 2 shall, with respect to lands which have already been assessed by the revenue-survey, now in progress, be the assessment already imposed upon those lands by that revenue survey, and with respect to lands which have not yet been assessed by that revenue-survey shall be such assessment as shall be agreed on by the Collector or settling officer and the owner or holder of the lands which shall be final ;

and, in failure of their agreement, it shall be the existing rental of the lands until the revenue-survey now in progress shall have placed a new assessment thereon, after which the assessment so placed by the said revenue-survey shall be understood to be the assessment.

And it shall be lawful for the duly authorized officers of the ⁵[⁶[Government]] employed in the said revenue-survey to enter upon all lands not heretofore assessed by such revenue-survey for the purpose of fixing and making an assessment thereof, provided, no arrangement can be otherwise arrived at by the Collector and the owner or holder, as above provided, to ascertain the fair rental of the lands.

Rule 2.–The assessment of lands of such an exceptional character as not to be assessable under the revenue-survey rules shall be in the discretion of the revenue-officers ⁵[of the ⁶[Government]], which discretion shall be guided, so far as may be, by the rate at which similar land in the same district ⁷[belonging to the ⁶[Government]] is let, due regard being had by the said revenue-officers to all equitable considerations affecting such lands.

1. The words “Provincial Government” were substituted for the words “Governor in Council” by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. This word was substituted for the word “Provincial” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

6. The word was substituted for the word “Crown ” by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

7. The words “belonging to the Crown” were substituted for the words “belonging to Government” by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

Shares of the revenues of villages (such as amals) shall be assessed for the purposes of this Act at the value thereof, calculated at the average shown by such accounts of actual realizations by the holders as are forthcoming for the ten years immediately preceding the promulgation of these rules.

Rule 3.—Lands for which a judi, salami or other quit-rent or land-tax under whatever denomination, is already ¹[paid to the ²[³[State] Government]], instead of being liable to only one-fourth of the assessment, shall in addition to the annual amount of such Judi salami, quit-rent or other tax aforesaid, be liable to a further annual quit-rent, equal to one-fourth of the sum by which the annual or average annual amount of such judi, salami or other quit-rent or tax aforesaid may fall short of the assessment.

Rule 4.—Quit-rent and annual nazrana imposed under this section (section 2) and the rules thereunto annexed shall be fixed in perpetuity, and shall not be liable to increase or decrease on any new assessment, save so far as is above in rule 1 of this section (section 2) provided to the contrary, in the case of lands which have not been already assessed by the revenue-survey now in progress.

Rule 5.—The whole of the exempt lands found in the possession of each holder shall be continued according to the provisions of this section (section 2) and the rules thereunto annexed, and subject to the enactments contained in section 3.

3. Any adjustment made by the ²[³[State] Government] with the holder of land held wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, in accordance with section 2 ⁴ * * * and the rules annexed to the said section, shall, so far as the right of ⁵ [the ²[³[State] Government] to levy the nazrana and the annual quit -rent mentioned in the said section is concerned, not only be binding upon such holder, his heirs and assigns, but also in the rightful owner, his heirs and assigns, whosoever such rightful owner may be:

Adjustment, so far as right of ²[³[State] Government] to levy nazrana and quit-rent, binding on holder and rightful owner and assigns.

Provided always that the said rightful owner, his heirs and assigns, shall not, by this Act or anything therein contained, be deprived of any rights or remedies ⁶ * * * * * to which he or they would be entitled against the said holder, his heirs or assigns for the recovery of the said lands or any part thereof if this Act had not been passed; and in the event of rightful owner, his heirs or assigns recovering the said lands or any part thereof, from the said holder, his heirs or assigns, any declaration, guarantee or adjustment made by the ²[³[State] Government] under, or in accordance with, sections 1 and 2 ⁴ * * * and the rules annexed to the said section 2 with respect to the said lands while the same were in the possession of the said holder, shall accrue to the benefit of the said rightful owner, his heirs and assigns.

Savings of rights and remedies of rightful owner, his heirs and assigns.

1. The words "paid to the Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "paid to Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

2. The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Government in Council" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

3. This word was substituted for the word 'Provincial' by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

4. The words "of this Act", were repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule has been printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904).

5. The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

6. The words "either at Law or in equity" were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1876 (12 of 1876).

Such lands, so far as rights of ¹[the ²[State] Government] are concerned, to be recognised as heritable and transferable property of actual and legal successors by inheritance and heirs by adoption.

4. Lands held partially or wholly exempt from the payment of land revenue, and already formally adjudicated to be so continuable hereditarily in perpetuity, may, at the option of the holder, be henceforth recognized, so far as the rights of ¹[the ²[State] Government] are concerned, as the heritable and also the transferable property, not only of the actual descendants of the person to whose descendants inheritance may have been limited by the terms of the said adjudication, but also of all his legal successors by inheritance, including heirs by collateral, successions and heirs by adoption, and their assigns;

and thereafter the right of ¹[the ²[State] Government] or its officers to question the title to possession, or to exemption from the payment of land-revenue, of any holder of the said land already so adjudicated to be heritable in perpetuity on the ground that he does not belong to the family to which title is restricted by the, adjudication, is hereby abrogated ; and, in any case of recognition as in this section aforesaid, lands already adjudicated to be heritable, and to which such recognition applies, are henceforth to be held subject to the payment to ¹[the ²[State] Government] of an annual nazrana calculated at the rate of one anna for each rupee of the assessment of the land, ascertainable as provided in the rules of section ² * * * which nazrana is to be in addition to the partial assessment (if any) ordered by the terms of the formal adjudication under which the land has already been declared to be continuable :

Lands adjudicated to be heritable and held subject to payment of additional nazrana.

Proviso. Provided, however, that the assent of the holder of all lands adjudicated as aforesaid to the acceptance of such recognition and the payment of such nazrana as in this section as aforesaid shall be assumed, unless such holders shall, within three (3) ⁴*months from the date on which this Act comes into operation, decline to accept such recognition as aforesaid by a notice given in writing to the Collector of the district.

Provisions in respect of amount of nazrana when it exceeds ten rupees. Occasional nazrana.

5. Clause 1st.- When the amount of the annual nazrana payable for any holding in accordance with section 2 or section 4 ³* * * * * respectively exceeds the sum of ten rupees, it shall be at the option of the holder of the land on account of which the said nazrana is declared payable, if he be not merely a mortgagee, to elect within two ⁴* months after service of a notice explaining the purport and effect of the rules contained in this section (section 5); which service shall be made in the same manner as is hereinafter provided for the service of the notice described in section 11 ³* * * that in lieu of the land being made subject to the payment of such annual nazrana an occasional nazrana shall be payable at each change of possession thereof, or of any part thereof, by inheritance or transfer, the amount of which nazrana shall be -

(a) on every succession by inheritance, a nazrana equal to one year's assessment of the wholly or partially exempt lands which are the subject of such succession ;

² This word was substituted for the word " Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

³ The words "of this Act" were repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule has been printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904.)

(b) on every transfer of lands wholly or partially, exempt from the payment of land-revenue, a nazrana equal to two years' assessment of the land transferred.

The assessment shall be, in each case, ascertainable under the rules annexed to section 2¹ * * * :

Provided that, in the event of more than one succession or transfer occurring within twelve months, such occasional nazrana² [on] succession or transfer shall not be leviable more than once: Proviso.

Provided also that it shall be at the option of the holder of the land to pay such occasional nazrana in one sum or by annual instalments not exceeding one-fourth of the whole nazrana per annum. Proviso.

Clause 2nd.—When, at the election of the holder, lands wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue shall have been made liable to occasional nazrana leviable under this section (section 5), instead of to an annual nazrana of one anna in each rupee of the assessment as provided by sections 2 and 4¹ * * * the occasional nazrana shall be levied from each person obtaining possession of the land to which it is subject, whether by inheritance or transfer, Occasional nazrana from whom to be levied and it shall be the duty of that person, within the period of one³ * month after obtaining possession as aforesaid, to give notice in writing thereof to the Collector or other chief revenue-officer of the⁴ * * district in which the said lands are situate, and, in default of such notice, the person so obtaining possession shall forfeit, in addition to the nazrana leviable on the occasion, a sum equal to the amount thereof. Person obtaining possession to give notice to Collector etc.

Clause 3rd.— It shall also be the duty of the holder of any land made subject under this section to the payment of occasional nazrana instead of to an annual nazrana of one anna in each rupee of the assessment who shall transfer the same or any part thereof, to give to the Collector or chief revenues officer of the⁴ * * district in which the lands so transferred are situate, notice in writing of such transfer and of the nature and extent thereof, and of the person or persons to whom the same is made, within one³ * month after such transfer has been made; and, in default of such notice, the person or persons so transferring as aforesaid shall forfeit a sum equal to the amount of the nazrana leviable on the occasion from the person to whom the transfer shall have been made. Holder of land paying occasional nazrana to give notice to Collector, etc. of transfer.

6. Clause 1st.—When lands are held wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, upon the title to which exemption there has not been any formal adjudication, the holders asserting a right to such exemption shall be at liberty, on the conditions hereinafter described, to claim a trial of, and adjudication upon, their title, according to Act XI of 1852, so far as the same is not altered modified or superseded by, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this Act. Holders asserting right to exemption may claim trial of, and adjudication upon, their title according to Act XI of 1852.

1. The words "of this Act" were repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886, (Bom. 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule has been printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. I of 1904).

2. This word was substituted for the word "or" by the Amending Act, 1895(16 of 1895).

3. The word "calendar" was repealed by Bom. 3 of 1880, sch. B.

4. The words "Collectorate or" were repealed, ibid.

Effect of exemption being established. Clause 2nd.- In the event of the title to such exemption being upon such inquiry demanded as last aforesaid duly established, the land shall not be heritable in any other manner, or to any further extent than the same may, on such inquiry as last aforesaid, be adjudged to be heritable ; nor shall any adoption be recognised in any Civil Court¹ * * * or by any officer of² [the³ Government]], as creative of, or continuing, a title to claim from² [the³ Governmnet]] any exemption from assessment or any other privilege on account of the said lands; and no nazrana shall be received on account of⁴ [the⁵ State] Government] from the holders of such lands.

And whensoever the same lands or by part thereof, either by operation of law, or by devolution, assignment, gift, sale (whether such sale be judicial, public or private), devise, transfer-deed or other instrument, or otherwise howsoever, pass to any person not an heir by actual descent from the person to whose heirs the lands shall be declared heritable, or in default of such declaration, from the person who may establish his title to exemption as last aforesaid, then the said lands, or such part thereof as may have so passed to any person other than the said actual descendants, shall forthwith become and be liable to payment of annual land-revenue at the full assessment.

Effect of exemption not being established. Clause 3rd.- In the event, upon such inquiry as aforesaid, of there being a failure by the holders to establish title to exemption from payment of land-revenue, the lands to which he has failed to establish such title shall forthwith become and be liable to payment of annual revenue at the full assessment.

When holders demand trial and adjudication, security to be furnished. 7. Clause 1st. - When the holders of land, held wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, demand a trial and adjudication of their title under the provisions of section⁶* *, they shall be required to furnish satisfactory security for the payment of the assessment of the land, in case of the failure to prove the title to exemption asserted by them ; and, in default of their furnishing satisfactory security, the full assessment of the land which is to be the subject of inquiry shall be levied pending the adjudication.

Refund of assessment with interest if holder prove title. Clause 2nd. - If the inquiry result in the establishment of the asserted title, the holder, or, in the event of his decease, his heir who succeeds to possession of the said lands, shall be entitled to a refund of any assessment levied under the provisions of this section, pending such inquiry as aforesaid and to interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum.

Full amount of land revenue to be paid, if holder fail to prove title. Clause 3rd. - If the result of the inquiry be that the holder fail to prove his title, the full amount of land-revenue assessable on the lands from the date of the holder's demand for trial shall be levied from the said holder and his security, or either, any sums levied pending adjudication as aforesaid being taken in account of the same.

Lands held on behalf of religious or charitable institutions. 8. Clause 1st.- Lands held wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue on behalf of religious or charitable institutions shall, if already formally adjudicated to be permanently so continuable, be so continued wholly or partially exempt from such payment of land-revenue as aforesaid, according to the terms of the adjudication.

1 The words " or Court of Law or Equity" were repealed by the Repealing Act, 1876 (12 of 1876).

2 The words "the Crown" were substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

3 This word was substituted for the word "Crown" by Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

4 The words "the Provincial Government" were substituted for the word "Government" by the Adaptation of Indian Laws Order in Council.

Clause 2nd.- Lands held on behalf of religious or charitable institutions, either wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, shall, if not already formally adjudicated to be permanently so continuable, be declared to be so wholly or partially exempt from such payment of land-revenue as aforesaid; subject, however, to the payment of annual quit-rent, equal to one-fourth of the assessment which shall be ascertainable under the rules annexed to section 2 ¹* * *

Clause 3rd.- It is, however, hereby declared that lands held on behalf of religious or charitable institutions wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, shall not be transferable from such institutions either by assignment, sale (whether such sale be judicial, public or private), gift, devise or otherwise howsoever, and no nazrana shall be leviable on account of such lands.

Clause 4th.- If the holders, managers or trustees of such lands shall refuse to accept the terms provided by clause 2 of this section, and shall demand a trial and adjudication of the title by which the land is held wholly or partially exempt from, land-revenue, they shall be entitled to the same, on the conditions, described in section 7 and subject to the liabilities provided in section 6¹* * *

9. It shall be lawful for the ²[³State] Government] to appoint officers to carry out the inquiries provided for in this Act in the districts in which Act XI of 1852 has the force of law, and to invest any officer so appointed with the authority conferred by the above Act on Inam Commissioners and Assistant Inam Commissioners.

Power to invest officers with authority of Inam Commissioners and their assistants.

10. Whenever any person, or persons, holding lands wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue, upon the title to which exemption, there has not been any formal adjudication, shall (whether such alleged title be founded on grant or prescription or on any other ground whatsoever) demand an inquiry under section 6 ¹* * * into such title, the burden of proof of such title shall, in every instance; lie and be cast exclusively upon the person or persons holding, or claiming to hold, such, lands so wholly or partially exempt from the payment of land-revenue as aforesaid, notwithstanding any existing usage, law, Regulation, Act or Statute in anywise to the contrary ; and it shall not be lawful for any Civil Court ⁴* * * * to place the burden of proof upon ⁵[the ⁶Government]], or upon the officer or officers representing ⁵[the ⁶Government]], of a right to levy the ordinary land-revenue upon the lands the subject of any such inquiry as aforesaid, and it shall in every instance be presumed, until the contrary is distinctly proved, that ⁵[the ⁶Government]] has the right to levy such ordinary land-revenue upon the lands the subject of any such inquiry as aforesaid.

Burden of proof in cases of inquiries under section 6.

It is, however, hereby further provided that nothing in this section contained shall disentitle ⁵[the ⁶Government]] or its duly authorized officers, to produce and give evidence in rebuttal or disproof of the alleged title to exemption aforesaid, if it seem to ⁵[the ⁶Government]] or its duly authorized officers, desirable or necessary to produce and give such evidence.

1 The words " of this Act" were repealed by the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1886 (Bom. 3 of 1886), Schedule B. This Schedule has been printed as an Appendix to the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904 (Bom. 1 of 1904).

6 This word was substituted for the word "Crown" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.

Collector or other officer may serve notice on holder of Lands asking whether or not he demands enquiry under section 6.

11. Clause 1st.- It shall be lawful for the Collector of each ¹* * district or for any other officer of ²[the ³[Government]] duly authorized in that behalf, whensoever such Collector or such other officer shall have reason to believe that lands are held wholly or partially exempt from payment of land-revenue, and that there has not been any formal adjudication upon the title to such exemption, to serve, or to cause to be served, a notice in writing, upon the holder of such lands, calling upon him to state whether or not he demands an inquiry under section 6 ⁴* * * into such alleged title to exemption as aforesaid, instead of accepting and abiding by the terms described in section 2 ⁵* * *

Language and form of notice.

Clause 2nd.- The notice shall be in the prevailing language of the ¹* * district in which the lands are situate, and shall explain the nature of the alternatives offered on the part of ⁶[the ⁷[State] Government].

On whom to be served.

Clause 3rd.- It shall be served upon the person holding, or registered in the Government land-registers as holding, the lands wholly or partially exempt from the land-revenue as aforesaid, if he be resident within the limits of the ⁸[district].

Service on non resident persons.

Clause 4th.- If such person as last aforesaid be not resident within the ⁹[district] the notice shall be served upon any person acting for the aforesaid in respect of the lands.

Service when several persons hold lands jointly.

Clause 5th.—When more persons than one hold jointly lands wholly or partially exempt from land-revenue, service of notice upon any one of them shall in every case be sufficient.

Service when holder known to reside in another district.

Clause 6th.- If the holder be known to reside in another ⁹[district] of the Bombay Presidency, and if there be no person acting for him in the ⁹[district] in which the lands are situate, the notice shall be sent to the Collector of such other ⁹[district] and served or caused to be served by him.

When no person acts for holder and holder cannot be found.

Clause 7th.- If there be not any person acting for the holder, and if he cannot be found, the notice shall be served upon some one of the actual occupants of the land (if any), and a copy of such notice shall be posted in the office of the chief native revenue-officer of the district, and in the chauri or most public place in the village where the lands are situate.

Enquiry when sufficiency of service of notice disputed.

Clause 8th.- In the event of any dispute arising as to the sufficiency of the service of any notice or notices under this section, the matter so in dispute shall be inquired into by the Collector of the district or other officer, appointed for the purpose by the ¹⁰[¹[State] Government], and the decision of the Collector or such other officer as aforesaid shall be final, and not open to appeal or question in any Civil Court ¹¹* * * or elsewhere.
